Established in 1992, the ECS Alumni Association advances the cause of engineering and computer science education at Syracuse University. All alumni of the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science are encouraged to participate!

The ECS Alumni Association is committed to:
• Promoting the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science.
• Helping to recruit prospective students and counsel current students to maintain enrollment.
• Develop a network within the association to foster professional career advancement opportunities for all ECS alumni.
• Collaborate with faculty members and students to enhance the engineering profession and the Syracuse University engineer.

For more information, visit www.ecs.syr.edu.

Irving A. Hotze ’43
1920-2006

As an alumnus and staunch supporter of Syracuse University and the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science, Irving A. (“Whitey”) Hotze always had a strong connection to his alma mater.

Owner and founder of IA Hotze Co., he graduated from ECS in 1943 with a degree in electrical engineering.

In 1990 he established the IA Hotze Award, given each year to outstanding engineering seniors from the college. He was a member of the Society of Fellows, the Founders Society, and the Chancellor’s Council. He founded the ECS Alumni Association Endowed Scholarship Fund in 1993 and was a past member of SU’s National Alumni Association board of directors. He was recognized for his continued commitment to SU with the Melvin A. Eggers senior alumni award in 2000.

He was highly committed to Syracuse University, the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science and to the field of engineering—encouraging and rewarding students who enter the field. His legacy will live on for years to come.
Friday, October 6, 2006
The Inaugural Whitey Hotze Classic
Sponsored by the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science (ECS) Alumni Association

Pompey Golf Club—Pompey, New York

Noon—Tee off
Enjoy an 18-hole round of golf with your colleagues and friends under a captain and crew format.

6 p.m.—Social hour (cash bar)

7 p.m.—Dinner
New York strip sirloin steak, seasonal vegetables, baked potato, pasta, tossed salad with dressing, rolls with butter, coffee/tea, and chef’s dessert (vegetarian dish also available). Prizes, awards, and raffles to follow dinner.

Please join us for an afternoon of golf, fellowship, and dinner. If you don’t golf, join us just for dinner. Take this opportunity to see old friends and make new ones. The captain and crew format takes the pressure off us duffers. Organize your own foursome—or let us do it for you!

Hope to see you there!
Dave Wenthen ’85, G’06

For directions to the golf course, contact:
The Pompey Club
7200 Hamilton Road
Pompey NY 13138
315-677-9079

Saturday, October 7
Dean’s Homecoming Open House

The L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science and the ECS Alumni Association invite you back to campus for the Dean’s Homecoming Open House.

We’re getting together before the Homecoming football game on Saturday, October 7. Whether you are attending the game or not, please join us for food, fun, and friends at Link Hall.

All ECS alumni and their guests are welcome. A special welcome to the comeback classes of ’76, ’81, ’86, ’96, and ’06.

WHERE: Link Hall patio, on the Quad, and 369 Link Hall

WHEN: Saturday, October 7, 2006—two hours before kickoff

Connect with ECS classmates, faculty, and staff—we’d love to see you!

R.S.V.P. by Friday, September 29 to Denise Hendee at 315-443-4345 or dahendee@syr.edu.

If you’re golfing on Friday, please indicate on the registration form if you will be attending the Open House.

GOLF REGISTRATION FORM:
Registration deadline—September 29, 2006
Golf Outing—Friday, October 6, 2006

NAME(S): ________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________

Identify the group you prefer to play with—or come single and let us do it for you!

Check all that apply:
☐ SU Alumnus  ☐ Student
☐ Faculty/Staff  ☐ Friend of SU
☐ Cart and Dinner: $75  ________
☐ Dinner only: $25  ________
☐ Vegetarian  ________

Total $ _______

☐ Will attend the Open House on Saturday, October 7
☐ Will NOT attend the Open House

Name ______________________________________
Address _____________________________________
Phone ______________________________________
e-mail ______________________________________

Make checks payable to: Syracuse University ECS Alumni Association

Mail check and registration to:
Syracuse University
Denise Hendee
L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science
223 Link Hall
Syracuse NY 13244-1240

For additional information, contact Denise Hendee:
315-443-4345; fax: 315-443-4936; dahendee@syr.edu.
The L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science

Alumni Association

Established in 1992, the ECS Alumni Association advances the cause of engineering and computer science education at Syracuse University. All alumni of the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science are encouraged to participate!

The ECS Alumni Association is committed to:
• Promoting the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science.
• Helping to recruit prospective students and counsel current students to maintain enrollment.
• Develop a network within the association to foster professional career advancement opportunities for all ECS alumni.
• Collaborate with faculty members and students to enhance the engineering profession and the Syracuse University engineer.

For more information, visit www.ecs.syr.edu.

Irving A. Hotze ’43
1920-2006

As an alumnus and staunch supporter of Syracuse University and the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science, Irving A. (“Whitey”) Hotze always had a strong connection to his alma mater.

Owner and founder of IA Hotze Co., he graduated from ECS in 1943 with a degree in electrical engineering.

In 1990 he established the IA Hotze Award, given each year to outstanding engineering seniors from the college. He was a member of the Society of Fellows, the Founders Society, and the Chancellor’s Council. He founded the ECS Alumni Association Endowed Scholarship Fund in 1993 and was a past member of SU’s National Alumni Association board of directors. He was recognized for his continued commitment to SU with the Melvin A. Eggers senior alumni award in 2000.

He was highly committed to Syracuse University, the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science and to the field of engineering—encouraging and rewarding students who enter the field. His legacy will live on for years to come.